While in Cleveland exiled King Peter of Yugoslavia visited The Cleveland Museum of Art and was taken on a tour by Dr. Sherman E. Lee, Director and Harry Francis Mr. Harold T. Clark, President of the Museum, Mr. Laurence H. Norton, President of The Western Reserve Historical Society and Dr. Sherman E. Lee, Director of the Museum. His Majesty spent two hours in the Museum and was much impressed by its collections showing a sound knowledge of art and a broad interest in it. He expressed particular pleasure in the Guelph Treasure and LAZARUS AND THE RICH MAN by Bassano. Photograph on cover shows His Majesty viewing PORTRAIT STATUE OF A STATESMAN, Roman, 1st century A.D. from The J. H. Wade Collection with Mr. Clark and Mr. Norton.
